"BARMOUTH."

Barmouth—Gibraltar. Built at the foot of the steep mountain under which runs the Maw river (which gives its name to the town), Barmouth has room for really only one street. The rest of the town scrambles picturesquely up the mountain side, planted on shelves of rock, reached by flights of steps cut in the rock. Gibraltar is the fishermen's quarter.

FOR ADDRESS ONLY.

I hope you'll be able to go with me Thurs. night. Remember you'll have to start at 7 sharp and I don't think I'll have time to come up after you. If I do get off a is the show itself.
